STARS OF CAREER WORLD

Hard work, perseverance and achievement all add up to a successful two years for the majority of Jonesites. High achievement is never easy, but Jonesites are well started on the path by the time they graduate.

Three on the way up. Jonesites enjoy being superbly suited to the business styles of today. Seen here are Carla Brown, Craig Campbell, and Lennell Rodriguez

VISTAS AND VISIONS

Every fall season, Jones Commercial High School presents a full-fledged fashion show with the career person's needs in mind. Sunday, November 7, 1976 was the red-letter day on all Jonesites' calendars. The Conrad Hilton Hotel was kind enough again this year to reserve space for our thirty-fifth annual fashion and variety show.

TOP LEFT: Our M.C.'s this year were Rochelle Santiago, Martha Galvan, Chris Gioia, Felecia Strickland, Gail Runnels, Eltrimice Booth, Arlene Eldridge, Josie Dospod, Michelle Meachum, and Debbie Carlson. Tapping to an accounting theme were La Nita Jackson, Yasmin Torres, Valerie Foley, Maria Gonzalez and Donna Moore.

MIDDLE LEFT: Lennell Rodriguez is ready for sleepy hours. Brenda Carter is suited to start her career days. Styled to set trends, Elsa Espinosa's outfit hit a fashion high note.

PROGRESSION TO COMPETENCY

ON HOPE

The closest friend in my life is HOPE. Without buoyant Hope I could never face another tomorrow. To me, Hope has an affinity with spiritual life, with an ardent belief in life and God's Goodness. Hope is that perpetual breath in darkness and that vital challenge to reach out to a fresh, gleaming, unspoiled world. The veracity of hope must be instilled with dauntless love into the hearts of men...that they may rejoice

LOVE

Love is a flower sent from above,
A boy and a girl, a tree, a friend
you love...Snow in wintertime, sun that shines on all.

COME

Come to this land!
Come in peace.
Stay in this land as long as you wish.
Let your children live here a happy life.

Remember the happy times as you older grow;
Come to this land in peace!
Do whatever you desire
For your own good.

Always remember the splendor of times past.
Leave in peace.

LaVeme Bowden

PROGRESSION TO HAPPINESS

Books

A time there was I never liked a book

Or sought on them to gave a second look
Books were trivial unimportant fare
From whose pages I would take no care:
But now I understand the measure
A book reveals to give mankind a treasure.
Gale Hall

ACTIVITIES

CLIMB EVERY MOUNTAIN

Is a mountain the figment
Of man's imagination
Or Mother Nature's pride?

Is a mountain the splendor
Of triumphant joy
Or embedded rubble and dirt?

Prudently must man decide.
Laura Chavarria

CONSTANCY

What is marriage? To me not love alone
Sufficient is; but Loyalty and Trust
Ardently persist...not "living together"
But friendship with a husband, a sharing fond;
That mutual true minds meet is love and marriage
To me...sublime

Charlene Ryce

WE TRY OUT!

The yearly fashion show involves many people who volunteer their time to aid Jonesites in their annual quest for the "Best Show Yet!" Two essential parts of the preparation are the judging of the Mr. and Miss Business finalists and the selection of the show models.

FASHION SHOW PRELIMINARIES

Excellent appearance, a personal interview, and a well-written entry are the final hurdles in the Mr. and Miss Business finals.

Ruby Humphrey displays the charm and poise that made her a successful entrant in the model selections.

The model contestants zip in and out making choosing just the right person a pleasant task for the judges. Good grooming is clearly evident.

BIG FOLKS

ABOVE: Martha Torres, Gloria Vasquez, Darlene Hollday.

GHOSTS 'N GOBLINS

Who can these strangers be?

It's time to laugh and play and be mysterious for a day.

King Tut's friends

IT'S HALLOWEEN!

Boo! Do we scare you? We can hardly believe that these are the same people we see every day. Where were they??? Right next to YOU! Shiver, shiver! Every year, Jonesites celebrate Halloween in costume and dance. Will we see you next year, Count Dracula?

Behind this sad face is jolly Kevin Holloway

It's Ladies Day as these players clearly show.

The mysterious Count and his lovely bride.

JINGLE BELLS

In the elegant setting of the Conrad Hilton Hotel, Jonesites held their annual Xmas Dance. It was well attended. Everyone looked marvelous and had a beautiful evening.

XMAS BELLES AND BEAUX

They were there. LEFT: Sharon Knight. ABOVE: Linda Blake and Danny Gonzales.

JOLLY OLD ELF

The Latin Club and Santa had a very special party at Pacific Gardens.

A Jonesite and her little friend.

'Hold that tiger!' Santa has reassuring words for a quest.

Every little quest spoke to Santa and received a gift.

Look out, piñata!

FELIZ NAVIDAD

Interesting

"So, I told Donner and Blitzen, Candy and Vixen, and Rudolf to wait on the roof of the Mission until the party with my friends is all over." Thank you, Santa. Thank you, Latin Club. See you next year.

SUPERSTARS EVERY ONE!

The JAA and the Physical Ed Department sponsored a several-weeks long, all-school competition. The purpose of the competition was to encourage a greater knowledge of physical fitness, engender enthusiasm, and recognize those students who are outstanding in athletics.

Otis Joyner joins in.

Biff Levy

Through the hoops, under the table, you can see that we are able.

Do the hustle!

ACTION SHOTS

These are shots taken during the intense competition. Excitement remained at a steady level of great enthusiasm. Everyone took part; some won trophies and other awards; everyone won a greater appreciation of good sportsmanship.

Doubles: K. Gomillion, T. Bradley, E. Espinosa, A. Becerra

Singles: C. Calloway, K. Williams

TABLE TENNIS

GUEST SPEAKERS

Mayor Michael A. Bilandic speaks to assembled Jonesites and their employers.

During every school year, experienced, professional business people come to speak to the Jones student body. They are a source of current information about today's world of work. Their insightful hints help all of us to make our career dreams a reality.

Joseph P. Hannon, General Superintendent of Schools

Returned alumna, Sharon Kopiec, gives advice on job opportunities.

Ms. Kochman gives hints on job success.

GREAT ADVICE

Dr. Irvin Strub of the American Cancer Society.

Returned alumnus, Gary Mazzone, now employed by TWA in the Customer Relations Department, gives excellent tips on good grooming.

ACTIVITIES WE ALWAYS ENJOYED DOING

Sleepwalking

Grubbing our faces

Litering at the "El" entrance

Getting acquainted with the teachers

Reading the Snoop Sisters Column

Joining the Women's Mafia.

Taking ballet lessons.

Gabbing on the telephone.

TIME OUT FOR A LAUGH

The silliness of it all should make you laugh. Tomorrow, we'll all be sane and serious. Today, we must play. Silly but fun! This is a two-page happening. Do you believe it? Obviously, any excuse for fun will do for Jolly Jonesites. The year-book staffers felt you would like to recall the fun of it all. Forever hold your banners high. J-O-N-E-S-I-T-E. Rah, rah, rah!

First-nighters at the Drama Club play.

Disc jockey for the day.

POSTURE 1977

JUDGING**TUMBLING**DANCING

As can be seen, our tumblers rise steadily to the top! Mr. Andy Martinez, television newscaster, and Mrs. Walsh were two of the many judges who kindly volunteered for this year's show. All participants strove to win and all truly did an outstanding job. Entertainment was also provided by dance groups who did modern dance routines and a "disco" dance called the Robot. This is really one of the most popular events of the school year. Yea Jonesites!

FBLA SCORES A "KNOCKOUT"

Jones' Future Business Leaders of America Club made us very proud this year. In the city-wide competition, they won nine first place trophies. In the state-wide competition, they won three first place trophies. Pictured above are the city first place winners and the club sponsor. ROW ONE L-R: Karen Gilbert, Accounting 11; Donna Sorrells, Sr. Stenography; Patricia Hodges, Miss FBLa; Clovis Horton, Public Speaking.

ROW TWO L-R: Mrs. Taylor, sponsor; Ramona Pennington, Economics; Eduardo Gonzalea, Data Processing; Michael Jankusky, Accounting 1; Donald Crawford, Mr. FBLa; and Chuen Leung, Junior Typing.

The picture to the immediate right is of our state first place winners. L-R: Eva Mayer, Stenography; Eduardo Gonzalez, Data Processing; and Chuen Leung, Typing.

One of the cute couples.

SWEETHEARTS DANCE

"Sweethearts Are Forever" was the name of the FBLA's February dance. The dance was held in "heartfully" decorated Jones dining area.

Slow and soulful.

Everybody dances when the music's so great.

Otis Joyner as the Judge.

PRESENTING . . . . .
TWELVE ANG

Place: A jury room

Time: The present

Cast: Rosalinda Abrego, Bill Tighe, Donald Crawford, Nancy Carrillo Michael Jankusky, Gwen Purches, Diane Worthy, Vickie Jones, Debra Adams Sharon Knight, Linda Pierce, Elsa Espinosa, Otis Joyner, Karen Gilbert, Anita Owens.

Y PEOPLE

SUNNY SIDE UP!

The annual Employer Appreciation Breakfast provides grateful Jonesites with a chance to show their employers in a small way how the students appreciated the opportunity to earn and learn during the senior year, work-study program.

Mayor Michael Bilandic

Mealtime prayers.

Civic-minded Jonesites exercise their rights

REGISTER HERE

Jones History Department actively convinces of-age students to register to vote. Special arrangements are made to take the students as a group to register. This year, Mayor Bilandic met and chatted with the newly-registered voters making it an outstanding experience for all involved.

It speaks for itself.

BUSY•BUSY•BUSY

Busy Jonesites work for their first grades. They work hard all year round and when grades are given Jonesites have a satisfied look on their faces.

WORK•WORK•WORK

Hi Ho Hi Ho It's off to work we go. . .
. . . this is the song we sing come spring.

SPRING AFFAIR

Rosa Obregon shows how.

Put your head on my shoulder.

Herman Fraga and Maricela Orozco. Are they in love?

I'm having a wonderful time

GOLD TASSELS

In order to wear a gold tassel at graduation, a student must have been on the Honor Roll SIX of EIGHT Marking periods. The students pictured on these pages are some of those eligible to wear a gold tassel at the graduation June 1977.

1976-77 CLASS OFFICERS

President: Patricia Hodges
Vice President: Pauline Pears
Secretary: Anita Owens
Treasurer: Cheryl Harris

LETTER TO 1976-77 GRADUATES

Dear Graduates of June, 1977:

This yearbook is dedicated to YOU, as rightly it should be! It represents in graphic form the culmination of your efforts and those of the Jones' staff to prepare you for a purposeful, successful adult life.

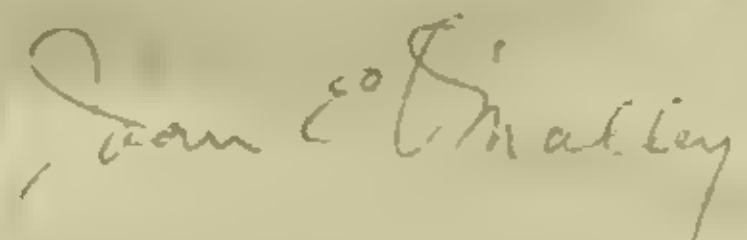

Each activity depicted in this yearbook reveals a learning experience, whether it was a fun project or an academic endeavor. I have never ceased to be impressed with the wealth of talent so many of you have revealed and developed during your two years at Jones! Your school activities have provided opportunities that enabled you to refine and productively channel your natural talents. In many ways, Jones has assisted you in your self-discovery of capabilities that you were unaware of possessing just two years ago.

Knowledge of yourself and of your capabilities — as well as their development and productive use to serve your individual goals — is a direct result of the unique Jones' program. Additionally, we have encouraged you to develop patterns of behavior designed to help you become a responsible citizen. The challenges you have met at Jones — and surmounted — have prepared you with the knowledge and skills to meet with confidence the future challenges you are bound to face.

Your class has now become a part of the history of Jones. Your future accomplishments or failures will reflect on our school. I am confident that your effect on the Jones' heritage will be positive.

My confidence in YOU is derived, in part, from my love for YOU. My special memories will always include the class of June, 1977 for your entry to Jones initiated my first principalship. I have good reason to thank you for many happy memories.

You have my most heartfelt wishes for your future success and a life of happiness.

J. E. O'Malley

EXCERPTS FROM TEA '77

A Trip, party for Mom is the annual afternoon tea party. Servers invite their mothers to the friendly affair and junior hostesses help, entertain. Coffee, tea, punch, canapés, cake, and entertainment add up to a delightful memory. Thank you, Mom, for everything.

HERE'S TO MOM!!

Mother and daughter look alikes were the hit of the day. We had a hard time telling one from another as they strolled and twirled on our stage. The Gospel Chorus provided several upliftingly spiritual songs for our benefit. A more lively note was seen when the Afro dance team performed.

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

So many memories came back as we listened to Denise Ellis and the Latin American singers. Who can forget the many assemblies in this auditorium? the speakers we've heard? the ribbons we've won? Now for a moment in time, we had a chance to share these precious memories. The sun was bright outside. In our minds, the sun was shining brightly still and covered all our memories with a momentary gleam of gold.

Colorful Reminiscences

Prom Night 1977

UNFORGETTABLE MOMENTS

Hearts fluttered and flowers trembled as we stepped into the fabulous M&M Club for our 1977 Prom. The band could be heard playing in the distance. The Panic played all the latest hit tunes: "Reasons", "Young Girl", "Midnight Love Affair", and many others. This year's senior class chose to have a dinner prom. At 8:30 sharp, the tasty meal was served. After that, we danced and partied until late at night.

Stanley Pearson, Ernest Weathersby and their dates.

Felecia Strickland, Denise Allen and their dates.

The brandy snifter and prom bid were popular favors.

Posing for future memories.

SOMEONE I CALL MY OWN

Leontyne Bell and her date.

SPARKLING VISIONS

Spark: a glowing particle struck from a larger mass.

Happy couples

The Panic provided the sounds we all preferred.

Good food, good friends, good music - a fun time!

OUR ENCHANTED EVENING

A dream come true - Queen Valerie for just one night.

Our Queen and her court: Princess Tanya Carter, Princess Leontyne Bell, Queen Valerie Lucas, Princess Gina Eggleston.

GARTER GAYETIES

Festive laughs were much in evidence during the very popular Garter Ceremony.

Elsa Espinosa and her date laughingly watch the activities.

Don't look, but that's my garter you're holding.

Dare he steal a lingering look at that cute garter?

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Jones Commercial's sixty-sixth graduation took place June 15, 1977 at Medinah Temple. The ceremonies began promptly at 8:00 p.m. Hundreds of joyous relatives and friends of the graduates filled the huge hall. Four hundred and thirty graduates marched in to the traditional strains of "Pomp and Circumstance". The audience then joined the graduates in the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star-Spangled Banner". Fourteen businesses and organizations presented awards to outstanding graduates.

The following students were among those who won awards at graduation: Eva Mayer, Certificate of School Award; Michael Jankusky and Patricia Hodges, Citizen Awards; Sylvia Alanis, Spelling Award; Hattie Gillenwater, Best Groomed Business Look Award; Eva Mayer, Borg-Warner Acc. Corp. Award; Gail Runnels, "Miss Project Girls" Award; Karen Gilbert, Top Student Award; Kam Eng, Business Machines Award; Hattie Gillenwater, Typing Award; Laura McPhee, Secretarial Award; Karen Gilbert, Data Processing Award.

Putting on our gloves.

Is this our place in the line?

Here we go!

WHAT AMERICA MEANS TO ME

American means people to me. They are friendly, faces, some from far away. It is a land of a thousand cities that are old and dusty towns that covered the land. It is made of highways and freeways that take you on long journeys and it is a land of a thousand cities each mile.

MESS :

VIEWPOINT ALBUM

SHARING

Sharing is caring! Sharing is to take affection, expertise, and a sympathetic awareness of another person, combining to "make the world go round." To other people is to have a better world. The person who is willing to share his possessions, his home, his training, and his experience for other people. Sharing manufactures not a world to come, but rather it creates a dream fulfilled.

Edna Collins

SILENCE

What is silence? A sound within?
Brilliant stars twinkling at night?
The haunting pause after the quiet end of a story

A house asleep? A long road, a long drive
The stillness of a wooded forest?
Is silence sudden or art -- denial or grace?
Cherish silence

Linda Newberry

ALL RIGHT

Everything's all right
When the wind touches me --
Touches me.

And I don't come alive
Until the wind
Touches me, touches me --
Touches ME!

Charlotte Wilson

NOTHING

To think on "nothing" is to think a lot.....NOTHING!

James Andrews

ALERTNESS

Always show a child care and love
With abuse Alertness flees --
Like the dove.

Maria Trejo

DELIGHT

Never will I forget a day like today,
When the sun was as bright as your smile of delight.
